

Event Organiser/ Fundraiser Volunteer

People in Harmony (PIH) is the UK mixed race charity for mixed race people, families and couples. The charity has been providing information and support for over 45 years to members, researchers the public. PIH continues to grow and evolve in response to shifting perceptions of mixed race.

About the role

This is an exciting opportunity for you to get involved and support our work by organising and running events and raising funds.

Typical tasks include

- Organising events - finding a venue and using networks to engage participants and promote the event
- Play a key role in planning an annual seminar
- Identifying funding opportunities
- Advertising events throughout mixed race communities, third sector organisations, statutory bodies
- Active marketing and promotion of the event itself and what PIH does

About the person

We are looking for someone who has:

- Enthusiasm, motivation and people skills
- Some financial skills and experience
- Ability to start new areas of dialogue, projects and research
- An interest in events and meeting people from diverse backgrounds
- Desire to give our members and supporters opportunities to meet and interact
- Some experience of mixed race matters
- Knowledge of health and safety

What We Offer

- Meet new people and be part of a dynamic and inclusive team
- Gain experience and confidence by interacting with the public
- Opportunities to represent PIH and mixed race matters with confidence
- The knowledge that you are making a difference to people's lives
- Reimbursement for out of pocket expenses
